Third International Conference Art and Environment North Latitude: Ethics and aesthetics of living

The call for submissions for the Third International Conference Art and Environment. North Latitude: Ethics and aesthetics of living, is now open. This year's conference, which will take place on November 16, 17 and 18, 2011 at the Polytechnic University of Valencia will focus on the Nordic and its effects on the conceptual level, beyond territorial boundaries.

The Art and Environment Research Center (CIAE), which forms part of the Polytechnic City of Innovation (CPI), invites researchers from all fields interested in the relationship between art and the environment, to submit papers.

PAPERS

Given the broad aim of the Arts and Environment Research Center and the experience from previous conferences, we welcome proposals from a wide range of fields such as philosophy, anthropology, urban planning, architecture and landscape architecture, ecology or business, from various perspectives illuminating the many aspects pertaining to art and public space, with a special attention to a Nordic context or mindset. The papers may be assigned to one of the three following topics:

SA_1: Ways of living

SA_2: Natural areas, public spaces

SA_3: Art, design and sustainability

The deadline for submission is September 5, 2011.

Documents (text and images) should be sent by email to ciae@upvnet.upv.es under the subject "III Conference CIAE followed by the name and surname".

Submitted papers will be reviewed by the Scientific and Technical Committee and the result of the selection process will be announced by Sep 29, 2011. After the conference, the selected papers will be published both on the website of CIAE, and in a printed publication, which will be distributed to the participating authors. Title, abstract and key words must necessarily be in English and Spanish, while the body of the text may be written in Spanish, Valencian or English.
