Letter of Invitation

With regard to the International Week at INSA Toulouse, I am pleased to invite a representative from your institution to INSA Toulouse from the 7th to the 11th of October 2019.

Each year, the International Week at INSA Toulouse aims to present all available international mobility opportunities to our students and foster relations between foreign and French students at INSA Toulouse. The delegations of our foreign partners also take part in this event by presenting their institutions to our students.

We kindly remind you that the expenses of health insurance, transportation, accommodation and the round-trip international air ticket of the participant will be covered by your university.

If you will be able to send a representative, please let us know at direction-ri@insa-toulouse.fr. If the university is unable to send a representative, please be aware that we would be glad to display any promotional materials from your establishment that you wish to send us at our physical address.

For all legal purposes,

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Danièle FOURNIER-PRUNARET
Director of International Relation
