* Further to Decision No 2/12 of the ACP-EU Council of Ministers of 15 June 2012 to approve the request of the Republic of South Sudan to accede to the ACP-EU Partnership Agreement and to grant observer status valid until 20 November (<http://eur-lex.europa.eu/LexUriServ/LexUriServ.do?uri=OJ:L:2012:175:0001:0002:EN:PDF>), proposals submitted by entities established in the Republic of South Sudan or for actions involving South Sudan as action location are eligible under the present call for proposals. The signature of any resulting grant contract will be subject to the completion of the accession procedure by the Republic of South Sudan.

 At the time of publication of this call for proposals South Africa, Sudan and Equatorial Guinea have not ratified the revised Cotonou Agreement and they are no longer considered as a signatory party to Cotonou 2005. However, they continue to be 'ACP States' and therefore, operators from these three countries (natural or legal persons) remain eligible to participate in procedures for the awarding of procurement contracts or grants under the 10th EDF.

At the time of publication of this call for proposals, the following applies to South Africa, Sudan, and Equatorial Guinea:

- State actors (i.e. local authorities)¹ are not eligible as applicants or partners in any proposal;
- Non-state actors (NSAs) of these countries are eligible as applicants and partners under the condition that their proposed projects have as final beneficiaries the population of one ACP State which has ratified the 2005 Revision of the Cotonou Agreement.

 Guinea Conakry, Guinea-Bissau, Fiji, Madagascar and Zimbabwe are involved in the consultation procedure foreseen under Article 96 of the Cotonou Agreement at the time of publication of this Call for Proposals and therefore, the following restrictions apply:

- State actors (i.e. local authorities)¹ are not eligible as applicants or partners in any proposal.
