

25. FRIED GREEN TOMATOES. Movie. Scenes 1 and 2.
Speak Up Video. Subtitled in English.

Read and fill in the gaps. What can you infer from the writing?: Number of characters, age, males, females, etc. At the end we will watch and check your answers.

Scene 1

- Did ____ hear that?
- What?
- Train
- No, I didn't hear no _____
- Nothing, I guess
- Well, where is uh Whistle Stop ____ the map?
- I can't find ____
- Well, why did you tell me _____ turn right ten miles back there?
God, you got ____ negative sense of direction, honestly
- I'm sorry. Oh, Ed, your aunt's going to ____ so disappointed we're late. I know she's been looking forward _____ this visit all week long.
- Hey, how's my _____ Auntie V. this afternoon?
- Remember us?
- Don't you look pretty
- We brought you something to ...
- Let me look _____ ya!
- Honey, don't act like this.
- Don't ... you know that Evelyn loves you?
- Uh, honey, I guess it would _____ better if you just wait out here _____ me or something. I'll get all this up
- Well, if you think it's best
- Yeah, I do this time. Okay?
- Have _____ nice day, Aunt Vesta.
- Don't you pitch a fit like that

Scene 2

- Did you know they took my gall bladder out?
- Uh, no, I didn't
- Oh, yes. Still in the hospital, in a jar
- I guess that's where they keep them
- I guess
- When I was in the hospital, the nurse give me one of them Fleet enemas. They're so fond _____
Mrs. Cleo Threadgoode, eighty-two year-old widow, imagine that. Naturally, everybody _____ me Ninny
Course, I'm just visiting here
Did you ever have one of them Fleet enemas?
- Um, ... well ... no
- You'd remember it. Me and my friend Mrs. Otis come from Whistle Stop. You ever been _____ Whistle Stop?
- Why, yes. I just passed _____ there today
- She's lived down the street from me _____, oh thirty years or more. After her son died, her daughter-in-law had a fit for her to come live here at the nursing home and they ask me _____ come with her and be her roommate. Mrs. Otis don't know it, but I'm going back home just soon as she gets settled in good.
Does the name Idgie Threadgoode ring _____ bell?
- No ma'am. I don't think _____