

Projects in English

Academic Year 2026 - 2027

Projects

If you need a course, that is not offered in English or additional credit points, here is a list of possible projects and field works you can make. In case you need a project related to other contents or another field of study, please tell us. We will check, if it is possible.

Please, contact lecturers directly in order to agree content, workload and conditions of your project.
